About Sonoro Gold Corp

Sonoro Gold Corp. is a junior gold exploration, development, and soon to be gold producer, with properties in the mining-friendly jurisdiction of Sonora, Mexico. The company is in the final permitting stage to develop an initial 12,000 tonnes per day heap leach mining operation at its flagship property, the Cerro Caliche gold project, and utilize the generated cash flow to fund further exploration and mine expansion. Sonoro has a highly experienced management team of mining, technical and finance professionals with a successful track record in discovery through to resource development and production.
